Excerpt: . . . this: The trust company should remain a trust company, and should exercise the greatest caution in assuming relations involving responsibility for the value of securities. MR. CHARLES B. HART, Investment Officer, Security Trust Co. , of Wheeling, West Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I move that the paper last read be printed for distribution. I regard it as a paper of great merit and great value. MR. F. J. WADE, President Mercantile Trust Co. , St. Louis: Mr. Chairman, as I understand all these papers will be printed in the proceedings of the Convention, and personally I question very much the wisdom of printing them and sending them broadcast to trust companies that are not members of this Association. They can acquire their information as to the transactions of this Association through the public press, and I do not believe that those who regard this Association...
