C. : Institute for National Strategic Studies, National Defense University, 2003. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)54113738 Subject: Energy industries -- China. Excerpt: . . . 3 ENERGY SECTOR ORGANIZATION subministries and affiliated national corporations run the less centralized electric power and coal industries. The State Planning Commission has ultimate authority for energy project approval, budget allocations, and financing arrangements. The State Science and Technology Commission and the State Economic and Trade Commission are also involved with energy industry development. The China National Energy Investment Corporation oversees major investment loans for the energy sector. The China National Petroleum Corporation is responsible for all on-shore upstream oil and gas operations, including shallow-water areas. In the past few years, CNPC has begun transformation into a multinational integrated oil company, establishing subsidiaries and acquiring overseas acreage and refineries in pursuit of export markets. The China National Offshore Oil Corporation was established in 1982 to explore China's offshore petroleum resources. The corporation has four regional subsidiaries (Bohai, East China Sea, Nanhai East, and Nanhai West) and several specialized subsidiaries. China established a third state oil company, the...
