In April 1999, we issued a report on HUDs oversight of CDBG and CPDs 12 three other formula grant programs. At that time, we found that HUDs monitoring did not ensure that the programs objectives were being met or that recipients were managing their funds appropriately. We also noted that IDIS did not provide the information necessary to accurately assess recipients performance and thus did not compensate for HUDs breakdowns in monitoring. Specifically, we reported that IDIS ( 1 ) provided ample opportunity for major problems with data entry and did not allow such problems to be corrected easily, ( 2 ) did not provide timely and accurate information, and ( 3 ) had difficulty producing reports. Because of the actions HUD took in response to our recommendations in this report, 13 we removed CPDs programs from our high-risk list in 2001. We have issued standards for internal control in government that agencies 14 should follow. Internal...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
