Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ABOUT THE AUTHOR Jereleen Hollimon-Miller, great grand-niece of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune of Mayesville SC and Former Mayor of Mayesville has accomplished her second book in the Facing Your Fears Collection. This book comes close to home, Jereleen being tender headed herself, has seen it passed down to another family generation. She sees her story as an exciting way to share with children and adults alike the consequences of being tender headed, and how it will help others in coming up with creative ways of reducing the fears of being tender headed. Oh My! Hair Day? begins with a sigh that came naturally from Adora. It was not good news. She disliked this day, Sunday, more than any other days in the week, simply because she was tender headed and she knew that it was the day in the week when those awfully dreaded words rang out, Adora, it s time for me to fix your hair. It s hair Day! The mere thought of those words was unbearable and not welcoming. Her silent words were always, not again. Thanks to Dad, the beauty parlor was the saving grace to Adora s tender head. Jereleen has taken a not so pleasant memory and given birth to another wonderful story, Oh My! Hair Day?.
