Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Original Juvenile Poetry O! heavenly muse direct my mind, That pleasure in writing I may find; That I may write that which is true, And bring many hidden things to view. If I should err in this small book, I hope all; my faults, will overlook; I hope some youth in a future day Will, a wiser part than this, display. My design in this book is not gain, But simply that this work may remain. I hope that it will yield to the mind, The pleasures which are to it consigned; If it should afford any delight, I am satisfied, and all is right. The Author.
