So, what does a thirty-something girl like me enjoy in life Well, for a start I like karaoke, CSI and the job of my dreams. Im always on the look out for a well-oiled man on the dating website but, to be honest, theyre a bit thin on the ground at the moment. My job always keeps me occupied because I need to keep an eye on that mad mongrel, Crabbie. He means well, bless, but he wouldnt know a real murder if one fell onto his head! Luckily he has me to steer him in the right direction because with my experience and him doing his knifey-thing, we actually make a good team! Follow my story as I tell you all about my life at the sharp end and how I try to save the world from all the nasty people. Along the way, you might even pick up a thing or two about murder-spotting! This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
