As consumers wrestle with tightening credit, economic uncertainties, unemployment, debt, the housing crises, global unrest, and prognostications of doom and gloom, doing something different is more important than ever. Repositioning, reengineering, reinventing, renewing, rejuvenating and reenergizing are all rising in priority as they relate to improving businesses, careers, hopes, dreams, personal development and life in general. Life improvement, battling status quo, the pursuit of happiness, and dealing with change are all or in part, on the mind of many today. All of these are related to improvement, and doing things again or different. RE: is the response to the point in time, life and history that our generation is in.
