Whatever may have been the original significance of the name normal school, it had come to have a well-defined meaning long before it was first used in our State legislature. A normal school was then and is now understood to mean one designed to prepare teachers for the profession of teaching. Such schools are based upon the fact that special preparatory training for teachers is essential in order to secure the best results from common schools. The schools under consideration are not only normal schools, but State normal schools, thereby indicating that they constitute a part of our State system of public instruction; that they are supported by the State in order to promote the efficiency of the State schools; and that they are intended to furnish better teachers, more enlightened methods of instruction, and results more in keeping with the progress...
